MISSION STATEMENT:

Ann Davis Transition Society provides support and services to those affected by abuse or violence

VISION:

Violence Free Communities

PURPOSES:

1. To provide refuge for women and their children who are victims of abuse.
2. To provide support services including, but not limited to: counselling, advocacy, crisis intervention and therapy
3. To educate the public about abuse against women and children and to promote greater understanding for the victims.
4. To provide victims of abuse with unbiased information and options on courses of action.
5. To initiate abuse prevention programs.

VALUES:

ACCOUNTABILITY: We hold ourselves responsible to our community to ensure the mission and purposes of the Society are met while maintaining our financial stability.

COMMITMENT: We are committed to assisting individuals who aspire to live free from abuse.

DIVERSITY: We celebrate and honour the differences within our community.

INTEGRITY: We acknowledge integrity as the foundation of truth while maintaining the highest ethical standards to ensure quality of service to our clients and community.

RESPECT: Our respect of every individual includes encouraging exploration of personal values. In our caring community, we empower people to make sound, educated decisions.

SUPPORT: We provide a compassionate and safe environment in which individuals are supported.
